

International Workshop on Wearable and Implantable Body Sensor Networks Paper Submission Style Guide

Dr Vincent Larik
Medtronic Inc., Bakken Research Centre BV, Netherlands

Monitoring of patients with therapeutic implants is currently done in hospitals and might shift only slowly to remote or home locations. However, the increased demand for diagnostic capabilities will require technologies for more frequent upload of gathered data.

A novel external device for ambulatory patients, enabling event recording, patient alarm and data storage, will be presented.